INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Faking Honors and Brave Acts of Soldier Boys

We have been victimized and unintentionally have victimized our readers in making announcements of returning soldiers in cases where the informants have deceived us, especially in the awarding of medals and honors and promotions as well as particular services alleged to have been performed by certain returned soldiers. Nothing gives us greater pleasure than to tell of the bravery and gallantry of "our boys" and the honors they received, but we do dislike being imposed upon by "fake" stories and manufactured events, and we will not publish these fulsome reports even upon the solicitation of most intimate friends unless we know the facts to be as reported. We are sorry to see this spirit of deceit and "four flushing," as it detracts from the real heroes and adds nothing to the pretenders as they will surely be found out, and there will be some exposures that will make most interesting reading. Moral: don't send us in any stories of this sort unless you actually know them to be true and are willing to have us use your name in printing them.

Happiness in Contentment

Some philosopher said "Without discontent, there would be no progress," or words to that effect, but he might have added "With discontent there is no happiness." We have become largely a nation of discontent, from the Bolsheviki agitator who wants the millionaire to peel his potatoes and furnish the meat free, to the social climber who in the language of the vaudeville actor "Has a turkey and pie appetite on a liver and mush income." It is well enough to be dissatisfied with existing circumstances that are wrong, but it is also well to be satisfied with a modicum of what is good, and which we possess. It is this continual striving for that which we may not hope to attain that fills the insane asylums and the jails. The one broods over it until they go insane, and the other goes out to get it by dishonest means and lands in the "howsgow" as our returned soldiers call it. A moments reflection will prove that we have a whole lot more to be thankful for and satisfied with, than we have to grieve for not possessing, and we are losing much happiness by not enjoying what we have, and being contented with it. The get rich quick man, and the society ambitious woman make more unhappiness than the lately departed John Barleycorn, and both alike are a menace to the peace and happiness of the family life and the nation.

That is, a material value may be carried up into a spiritual value. The one may be changed into the other. You have a dollar. That is a material thing. You give it to some needy sufferer. He is full of gratitude. You find yourself drawn close to him. It is a wonderful experience. Your dollar is gone. You have traded it off for a heavenly feeling. You have transmitted the money. You have laid up treasure in heaven. Let us think of this.

A Daily Vacation Bible School in Normal Park

The Normal Baptist Church is contemplating setting up a daily Vacation Bible School in that church this summer, beginning probably Monday, June 30. This enterprise has been carried on with great success by many churches of various denominations for some years past in Chicago and other cities, and has proven itself one of the most interesting and helpful forms of summer activity for boys and girls. Besides Bible study the program will include a kindergarten for the younger children, and for the older children craft work, such as making hammocks, baskets, toys, scroll saw work, etc., games, picnics, visits to the major league ball games, and other equally interesting items. A lecture illustrated with stereopticon views and an exhibit of work done in such schools will be given in church Sunday evening next at 8 o'clock. Admission is free, and it is hoped to interest the parents of many children who may be able to attend. The church is located at the corner of 70th St. and Stewart Ave.

Plants Affected by Sun.

Some remarkable variations in plant structure and color from exposure to the sun at different hours of the day have been brought to the notice of the Royal Microscopical Society of England by Col. R. E. Rawson. In flowers of the common nasturtium—tropaeolum majus—the low sun of the early morning developed yellow coloring matter, the middle sun of midday stimulated the violets blues and purples. The color of the foliage and lobing of the leaves also changed.

D. W. GRIFFITH

Presents His Newest Success

"TRUE HEART SUSIE"

Lillian Gish in D.W. GRIFFITH'S "True Heart Susie"
An ARTCRAFT Picture

A True To Life Story of a Plain Girl

Here is the latest of those wonderful dramas woven around the lives of plain people with which D. W. Griffith has thrilled all America.

Another great romance by the creator of "The Birth of a Nation," "Hearts of the World" and "Broken Blossoms." A picture of smiles, tears and human appeal that goes straight to your heart, with the brilliant Griffith cast—

Lillian Gish, Robert Harron, Clarine Seymour and George Fawcett.

Her love never wavered through the happy days in the village, through the sacrifices she made for him—even when he married another. Her heart was too true to ever be shaken. He was stolen away from her and yet above everything she wanted him to be happy. It's an amazing story of smiles and heart throbs, with the ending you'll like.

It takes a Griffith to make a plain girl triumph over a pretty girl. Come and see how he does it!

THOS. BENTLEY'S TELEPHONE WENT 7399 E. A. R. WENTWORTH AT 60TH ST. Concert Orchestra THEATRE Organ Recital Soloists

Friday and Saturday, June 20th, 21st. The famous Ruth Chatterton stage success in movies at the E. A. R. Marguerite Clark in "Come Out of the Kitchen." When necessity drives there is no need to beckon. The story of the young society girl who tries to keep one eye on the family silver and one eye on the young man with the gold. When he asked her did she come? Also Pathe news. Burton Holmes. "The Red Glove," seventh episode.

Sunday, June 22nd. Kitty Gordon in "Playthings of Passion." Gorgeous gowns, sparkling jewels, extraordinary situations. A social butterfly may develop a hitherto unsuspected earnestness of purpose, when the object is big enough and worthy enough of her interest. Such was the case of the woman in this story. Also Lyons & Moran comedy. Extra attraction at matinee only, Ruth Roland in "The Tiger's Trail." Episode No. 6.

Wednesday, June 25th. Anita Stewart in LeRoy Scott's sensational story of New York life, "Mary Regan." One of the most fascinating romances of the screen. Two men would wed her—one the charming but dissolute son of wealth, the other a real man in his own right. Imagine a beautiful girl in such circumstances! Also Mack Sennett comedy.

VIVIAN MARTIN

In a "Home Town Girl," Monday, June 23rd.

Monday, June 23rd. Vivian Martin in "A Home Town Girl." It's one of Miss Martin's best productions and is guaranteed to give you a surprise. Come and see for yourself. Also Pathe news and Christie comedy.

Tuesday, June 24th. Pauline Frederick in "The Fear Woman." The story depicts the soul of a very unusual girl—her origin, her struggles against environment—and the great sacrifice a conscientious woman will make for love. A very unusual picture. Also a good Billie West comedy.

Thursday, June 26th. Ethel Clayton in "Vicky Van." A daring mystery of New York—the dual life of a young wife and the death of her brutal but wealthy husband—a wonder play you'll enjoy. Also "The Scarlet Past." Pictograph.

Mrs Sidney Drew in "SQUARED" Paramount-Drew Comedy

Pathe News. Matinee only, "Perils of Thunder Mountain."

Saturday, June 21. Continuous 2 to 11. First time in Englewood, bewitching Mae Murray in her fascinating role, "The Delicious Little Devil." Was she a dark-skinned, dangerous queen of the East? She was not, but she was Irish. A little, light-heeled imp of the tenements who grabbed her chance to swap corned beef and cabbage for pate-de-foie-gras, and joyously won out. Two part comedy, Hearst Weekly and colored Pathe pictures.

Sunday, June 22. Continuous 2 to 11. Beautiful Kitty Gordon in her latest thrilling super picture, "Playthings of Passion." The story of a rich woman's infatuation and a startling sacrifice picturized from Anthony McGuire's famous story. This drama is full of tense dramatic scenes. It takes you into the homes of the rich, homes of the poor, from cabaret to hovel. Also Chas. Chaplin in "Easy Street," Pathe news and matinee only "The Red Glove."

Tuesday, June 24th. Matinee and night. Earle Williams in "A Rogue's Romance." Mr. Williams has the role of Mons. Picard, one of the greatest characters in French criminal history, in this swift moving drama of a master society crook who never is caught and who finally goes straight for the love of the girl who saves him in his closest call. Also Burton Holmes, Christie comedy and others.

Wednesday and Thursday, June 25th and 26th. Matinee and night. "The Woman Who Waits." She is the central character of David W. Griffith's great Arteraft picture, "True Heart Susie." Does man or woman do the wooing? Is there anything more brutal than the treatment civilization gives to womanhood? "True Heart Susie" is dedicated to the plain women of the world. In theory, a woman is free to marry whom she pleases. Is this the truth? In the first place there are many more women than men in the world. In what sort of an environment does civilization put a young girl?

At the "Harvard Beautiful" Wednesday and Thursday, June 25th and 26th. Matinee and night.

Coming Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28, Alice Joyce in the famous stage success, "The Third Degree."

Why Business Fails.

Dr. Malcolm Keir of the University of Pennsylvania attributes the 15,000 to 20,000 business failures which occur annually to one or more of the following causes: Inexperience, unwise use of capital, employment of relatives, poor location and accounting, extension of credit and dishonesty.

World's Hottest Places.

The Sahara desert, between parallels 10 and 0, is considered to be the hottest place in the world, but Hyperabad, in Sid desert in India, is even hotter. In summer months it is said the temperature there often rises above 125 degrees in the shade.

This being our sixth suc essful year at this location, we are indeed grateful to the public that is so friendly and so generous in its bestowal of confidence and patronage.

There is but one return possible: to give better service than ever. This we shall do.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

When you hear a woman shriek,
In the summer time,
Hear an anguish ridden squeak,
In the summer time,
Do not madly call, "Police!"
Do not run as shrieks increase,
In the summer time!
Feel no silly, fierce alarm—
No one does the maiden harm
In the summer time!
In the hammock as she swings
Something ticklish like, with wings—
Just a merest tiny speck—
Has dropped sprawling down her neck!!
(Mercy!)
In the summer time!

Yep! it's come around again mighty quick about it too, and I am 16 again, at least there is a "6" and a "1" in it and I am pleased to put the "1" in front—sure it is me age oi do be spakin' uv.

Blessed is the man that is not worried about what he will have to do after July 1st.

The farmer keeper of "Summer resorts is now in town buying up stale canned goods to feed his victim guests "fresh farm vegetables."

If every fellow received an honor medal that claims to have, there must be a shortage of metal in the land. Faking soldier honors is a pretty mean thing.

Hully chee! Now the bank clerks are organizing for shorter hours—I always thought those boys only worked a few hours to break the monotony of the lazy day.

There has been some dispute as to the kind of bathing suits allowed at the public beaches, and Casey remarks, "Shure ut do be a big talk over so small a thing."

There were four separate "tagging" enterprises working in Englewood Monday and all were doing good business. What's the matter with a tag day for the widows and orphans? I'll be the widow and my wife the orphan!

Carl Morgan of the Calumet Index has suddenly gone into the "predatory rich" class, and one of his pet politicians whom he thrice supported, and by way of a change successfully opposed this spring, has sued him for $50,000. The last time I was out with Carl he "bilked" me for coffee and —, and to think that all this time he had 50,000 good hard iron men hid in his jeans, ah, me! ah my! Carl, how could you do it? My advice to Carl is to get Mr. Block to sue him for $100,000, and when he collects it, have him divide it and thus even up both parties. See?

William Williams hated nicknames. He said that most fine given names were ruined by nicknames and that he should name his sons so that it would be impossible to curtail their names. In pursuance of that idea he named his oldest son William, which, of course, was likely to be shortened to "Will" or "Willie"—but wait! A second son was named Willard. "Aha!" said Mr. Williams, "now everybody will have to speak the full names of these boys in order to distinguish them." Then three more boys were named respectively, Wilbert, Wilfred and Wilmont. They are all big boys now and they are known as Billy, Skinny, Butch, Chuck and Kid.

A traveler tells of a trip on a jaunting car in Ireland, where he had as a fellow passenger an ugly looking man, whom he was not sorry to leave behind at an inn. "That was a queer looking fellow, Pat," he remarked to the waggish driver, as he proceeded on his way. "Faith, your honor, he's as quare as he looks. He's a villain. He's done fifteen years for laving his woife without visible means of support." "Oh, get out, Pat! A man can't get fifteen years' penal servitude for leaving his wife without visible means of support." "Shure, and can't he, sir?" said Pat, with a twinkle in his roguish eyes. "He did, though. And, bedad, isn't it leaving yer woife without visible means of support when ye throw her out of a window on the third floor?"

Christian Science Lectures

Two free lectures on Christian Science will be given at Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, Harvard Ave. and West Marquette Road, on Monday evening, June 23rd. The first lecture will begin at 7 o'clock, and will be repeated at 8:30 o'clock. The lecturer is Mr. Virgil O. Strickler, C. S. B., of New York City, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. The public is lovingly invited to attend one of these lectures, which will be the last given until September of this year.

"Finding Your Soul," Dr. White's Subject Sunday

At the People's liberal church next Sunday morning, Dr. R. A. White will preach a most interesting sermon on "Finding Your Soul" and there also will be the reading of War poems. This subject as handled by Dr. White will probably be one of the most interesting that the eloquent divine has given us for some time, as it will be viewed in a more practical light than is usual from orthodox pulpits and whatever he has to say on the subject cannot but be of interest. The literary feature of the reading of the better poems on the War, means a treat to all lovers of the beautiful in literature and the service will be altogether interesting. Marie Woodman Tufts will be the soloist, and Frank VanDusen organist.

Death of Phillip J. Weber

Phillip J. Weber, the founder of the wholesale grocery firm of Frank C. Weber & Co., and one of the pioneer merchants of the Town of Lake, died at his home 1544 W. Garfield Blvd. Tuesday, after a short illness with pneumonia. His funeral will occur Friday morning at ten o'clock from St. Augustine's church where a solemn requiem High Mass will be celebrated. Interment will be at St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Weber was 71 years of age, and located in the Town of Lake in 1870, going into the grocery business at 48th St. and Ashland Ave. in 1882 and moved to Englewood in 1896 when the present business was established under the corporate name of Frank C. Weber & Co.

He leaves besides his beloved wife, three sons Frank C., Anton H., and Phillip J. Jr., all of whom are active members of the firm and have been engaged with their father since their boyhood.

Mr. Weber was a gentleman in every sense of the word, a man of shrewd business integrity, honest, capable, kind and considerate of others, and his every acquaintance became a friend. He had large business and financial interests outside of the wholesale grocery, and was successful and prosperous notwithstanding he was very charitable and public spirited and a large contributer to various charities and institutions. There will be many sad hearts at his funeral and his many friends extend sympathy and condolences to the bereaved family.

Commander H. D. Fulton

Henry D. Fulton of 446 Englewood Ave. was elected unanimously Department Commander of Illinois of the G. A. R. at the encampment held at Rockford, Ill., June 10th, 11th and 12th, and his comrades of Meade Post are joined by the entire community in doing honors to this veteran of the Civil war and promment member of the G. A. R.

Mr. Fulton has a war record to be proud of; he enlisted when 16 years of age as a private and participated in every battle of the earlier campaigns leading up to the battle of Chickamauga where on September 19th, 1863, he was shot through the left shoulder by a 4-ounce canister shot, and after months in hospital was mustered out for "wounds received in battle" April 21st, 1864. He still shows this shot as a souvenir. Mr. Fulton joined the G. A. R. in the early '80's and transferred to Meade Post in 1885, and since then has been one of its most devoted members and as past commander serving in 1892, and is now the oldest past commander. He was member of the 45th and 46th general assemblies and was a valuable member, as he has been a citizen, in everything that looked to the moral or physical welfare of our community. All honor to Commander Fulton and to Meade Post, its Women's Relief corps and the Affiliated Daughters and Sons of Veterans, who are proud of this signal distinction bestowed upon one of their members.

Nash, 7526 Eggleston Ave. There will be a community garden festival held Wednesday evening, September 17th, at the Parker school "gym," when prizes will be awarded. Join in the movement and help the good work along.

The Englewood Blouse Shop at 441 W. 63rd St., just east of the post office is making a specialty of wonderful Georgette blouses of all colors and shades at $4.95, and handsome Pongees at $3.75. This lot is specially elegant and is being used as an advertisement for this up to the minute store. Ladies are invited to call in and see the elegant stock and become acquainted with the pleasant corps of salesladies and proprietress. (adv.)

Of Course We Are All Honest, But—?

It is our rule to insist upon payment in advance of all advertisements in our classified columns, but personal appeals by telephone and mail, innumerable and very plausible excuses have caused us to violate it, and since the first of the year we find just $64.35 due us from these friends who "will send the money right away." We have been to the expense of bookkeeping amounts from 25c to $1.50, have had to make entries, confused our system, and suffered this loss, just to be "a good fellow." We cannot afford to keep books in this department and henceforth this rule will be enforced indiscriminately, and in the meantime if any who know they owe us these small amounts feel like mailing it to us, we are in a receptive mood right now.

British Urged to Keep Goats.

"Goat getting" is coming right along as a national sport in England, says a London dispatch. Everyone who knows anything about Nannie is writing to the papers urging everyone to get one goat at least and more if possible and keep them. The right kind of goat yields about two quarts of milk daily and the gentlemen of the species—the boys with the Farmer Brown whiskers—are said to produce first-class mutton.

Any Honest Task Attractive.

Any honest task is capable of being so largely conceived that he who enters into it may see, stretching before him, the promise of things to do and be, that will stir his enthusiasm and satisfy his best desires.—Phillips Brooks.

G. A. R. Thanks Their Friends

Mr. Gerald E. Sullivan,
Editor Englewood Times,
Dear Sir:

On Memorial Day a number of patriotic citizens of Englewood furnished autos to convey the comrades of Meade Post G. A. R. and the members of the Women's Relief corps and the Daughters of Veterans from G. A. R. hall, Englewood, to Mt. Hope cemetery where the ceremonies of decorating the graves of the old soldiers were performed. We also know that it was through your paper that the call for these autos was made and we appreciate the service that the Englewood Times rendered in this behalf.

By unanimous resolution of the Post I am instructed to express to you, and through your columns, to those who furnished cars on that occasion, the sincere and grateful thanks of our comrades who were so accommodated on Memorial Day. It was a service that the old soldiers appreciated because of the patriotic spirit displayed by those who rendered it.

Yours in F. C. and L.,
CORNELIUS BAKER.
Commander.

Of Interest to Coal Buyers

Our advice to the coal buying public is get quality. Quality means a whole big lot, it means pure coal. Pure coal means no slate or stones, very little ash and no clinker. The results are lots of heat and satisfaction. Our 25 years' experience in the coal business taught us to buy the best grades of coal regardless of price. That's why our patrons are protected against inferior grades of coals. Quality and satisfaction are worth paying for and is the cheapest in the end. Whereby cheap and bad coal is very dear in the end. Any further information desired, we will gladly give it and assist you in any way possible, whether you buy or not. Phone Stewart 70. How the Creditors Found It Out

From the custodian in charge, one of the former proprietors, the creditors of the Auto Sales and Garage Co., advertised at 5951-59 So. Halsted St., "Englewood's Most Complete Auto Institution," learned that it was in the hands of the court on a distress warrant taken out by the landlord. There was no notice posted on the premises, and the announcement made by the custodian and one of the former proprietors was a bit of surprise, as business had been in progress the same as usual, and no notice served on the creditors.
